ICMR-NIOH & GPCB

The ICMR-National Institute of Occupational Health is a premier institute of Indian Council of Medical Research under Department of Health Research, Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt. of India, endeavourer of research on occupational and environmental health to provide a safe, healthy and comfortable work environment.

Gujarat Pollution Control Board was constituted by Government of Gujarat on 15th October, 1974 in accordance with the provision of the Water Act, 1974. GPCB has continued its efforts for the betterment of environment through pollution control and improved management. Several critical issues in the field of environment are being tackled by the board. Apart from basic function as regulatory body, it has also been organising various awareness programmes, from time to time on local issues like municipal solid wastes, bio-medical wastes, plastic issues besides water, air and land pollution. Efforts are being made for pollution control with a view to minimize and prevent pollution.

As part of specialized human resource development, the ICMR-NIOH and GPCB are conducting a four-days training programme on “National Accreditation Board for Testing and Calibration Laboratories IS/ISO/IEC 17025:2005” for researchers/scientists during 13th -16th November 2017.
